STAYWITHME

As the sun came rushing in
And my eyes, no one could find
Though I couldn't see your face
Alone, I felt your smile

So I set out for the road
To a place no one defines
Crowded streets or silent paths
All the same with you in mind
Everywhere I turn these days
All the same with you in mind

Stay with me
Talk again
Walking with my wings pinned down
Until you come again

As I tread this narrow path
To feel the winds of change
Cool and settled shady breeze
When I think of your embrace

Where the dirt and shadows meet
Where I almost missed your hand
Looking for some shining blaze
We're just walking hand in hand

Your simple love surprised me, love
We're just walking hand in hand

You see me more than I could dream
And you meet me where I am

COMEBACK

You can waste my dear mind
You take all my time away
To cover with lies
And mistakes

You can use my body
You can ruin my eyes
'til I cannot find me

But this soul just won't die
And this heart beats into life
Bleed it out, bleed it dry
As you may

I'll come back someday

You can walk over me
Talk your trash 'til it stings like words
Covered in teeth
That cut into me

You can bruise and batter
Like my best don't matter at all
You can push me around
Turn my dreams & my cash to the ground

But this soul just won't die
And this heart beats into life
Bleed it out, bleed it dry
As you may
As you might have thought you could sell me out
But you can't kill the sound
In your ears ringing loud

I'll come back again someday

Got away - got a day in the sun
Gotta live it up
Made amends with dirt I came from
Had to give it up
Buried under the tree where I swung
I found love. Found a way

I'll come back someday

INOTHERWORLDS

Go to sleep now little girl
And dream of things in other worlds
Some things that scare you and make you hide
From shadows and noises coming to life now

Go to sleep and see a place
That no one can give you or take away
There are worlds that come from you and far away
If you trust yourself you'll be okay

Along this narrow stretch of sand
Where the sun is coming up on the land
And the stars are bending on their sides
Like steps you move up into light

You see yourself
Like nobody else
You can't hold back
On your dream

Wars are striking in the dark
Where nightmares rule and crush
Your heart is pounding for rescue
And beating so loud
Believe in more than you are
You cry out

With your eyes opening
Get your mind going
And give yourself a dream

Dream

You can't hold back on your dream

NEGOTIATE

We're down and negotiable
Fear lead and so negotiable

No long wait for rest...no breath

Shed blood, and don't you break your word
Shed love
It's so negotiable

When battles come and secrets lie
And bring down all
Fall

Divine, we're so negotiable
O Divine, they say there's no negotiable
We're cheated on
We are falling fear
And here to negotiate
